Indicators for a sustainable future

The OKKA Foundation 2/2020

Present vocational competencies Personal competence development plan Personal competence areas Personal competence development plan Personal competencies are sustainability of the personal skills Personal competencies and scanning Personal competencies and scanning of sustainability study path Personal competencies and skills Personal competencies and skills Personal competencies and skills Personal competencies and scanning of sustainability study path Pers	entation
VET Personal competence development plan Target: working in an occupation Target: sustainability competence areas Personal competence development plan Target: sustainability study path Target: sustainability of a change agent Extension to thinking and interpersonal skills Focus: work process and working environment Learning by developing ways of action Perspective is broadened to society Learning by innovating new solution Environments Perspective is broadened to society Perspective is broadened to global or support sustainability Practices and technology support sustainability Support for understanding global or support sustainability Paraget: working in an occupation 1. Learning of sustainability competencies 2. Learning of environments 3. Learning environments 4. Learning by practicing ways of action 5. Learning environments 6. Extension to thinking and interpersonal skills 6. Extension to Eco-social education environment 6. Perspective is broadened to society 6. Perspective is broadened to global environment environment environment environments 7. Learning by practicing ways of action 8. Learning by practicing ways of action 9. Learning by developing ways of action 9. Learning by innovating new solution environments environment environments environment environments environment environment environments environments environment environments environment environments environment environmen
Sustainability Practices and technology support sustainability Support for understanding global
Sustainability of workplaces is not evaluated students adapt to the operational culture Sustainability of workplaces is not evaluated of the operational culture Sustainability of workplaces of the operational culture of the operation of the
Sustainability of workplaces is not evaluated students adapt to the operational culture Sustainability of workplaces is not evaluated of the operational culture Sustainability of workplaces of the operational culture of the operation of the	l dimension
Sustainability of workplaces is not evaluated students adapt to the operational culture Sustainability of workplaces is not evaluated of the operational culture Sustainability of workplaces of the operational culture of the operation of the	ons
Students adapt to the operational culture Students reform institution's ways of action Students reform ways of action Students reform ways of action	issues
	n environments
4. Learning community and partnerships 5. Staff and students adapt to the rules 6. Institution is reformed through critical dialogue 7. Relationship with society is networks 8. Relationship with society is interactive 8. Relationship with society is networks 9. Relationship with society is interactive 9. Relationship with society is networks 9. Relationship with society is networks	vorkplaces
• Staff and students adapt to the rules partnerships • Staff and students adapt to the rules • Institution is reformed through critical dialogue • Creation of partnerships which tri • Institution's relationship with society is separate • Relationship with society is interactive • Relationship with society is network.
• Institution's relationship with society is separate • Relationship with society is interactive • Relationship with society is network.	insform society
	rked
5. Environmental • Focus on the fulfilment of regulations • Institution sets sustainability targets • Institution aims at carbon neutral	ty responsibility • Environment is not a criterium for procurements • Environment as a priority for procurements • Institution is a part of the local circ	cular economy
Attempts for greening the everyday activities All-embracing environmental responsibility Well-being and economy within e	cological limits
6. Well-being • Focus on the fulfilment of regulations • Focus on the needs of students and staff • Recognizing the uniqueness of every	ery single human
• Safety and physical health • Communality, inclusion, diversity • Encounters, compassion, meaning	gfulness
Reactive actions to deficiencies Development of well-being with stakeholders Partnerships improving well-being	; in the region
7. Strategy • Strategy process is limited to the management level • Staff and students participate in the process • Partners and stakeholders participate	ate in the process
• Strategy is institution-centered • Strategy has a societal orientation • Strategy has a sustainability orien	tation
• Strategy is reactive and preserving • Strategy is proactive and reforms the institution • Strategy is visionary and aims at tra	ansforming society
8. Leadership • Focus on productivity and maintaining the status quo • Focus on change of the operative environment • Focus on the aspiration of a susta	nable future
• Responsibilities and control • Shared objectives and reformation • Shared values and visions and training • Shared values •	nsformation
Weak interaction and conformity Connections, interaction, diversity Networking and self-organization
8. Leadership • Focus on productivity and maintaining the status quo • Responsibilities and control • Weak interaction and conformity • Shared objectives and reformation • Networking and self-organization • Shared values and visions and train • Networking and self-organization • Sustainability in one's work • Development needs are not identified • Competence development • Focus on the aspiration of a sustainability in one and reformation • Shared values and visions and train • Networking and self-organization • Global challenges and Eco-social experience development is systematic. • Competence development is special in the process of the operative environment in the aspiration of a sustainability in one as process of the operative environment in the procus on the aspiration of a sustainability in one as process.	ducation development • Development needs are not identified • The needs for sustainability skills are anticipated • Institution creates new sustainability skills are anticipated	lity expertise
► Competence development is sporadic • Competence development is systematic • Work and competence development	ent are merging
10. Evaluation and • Sustainability indicators are not defined • Internal sustainability indicators are in use • Societal impact indicators are in use	se development • Sustainability of the institution is not evaluated • Staff and students participate in the evaluation • Sustainability evaluation together	with partners
• Staff and students not participating in development Participative culture of development • Sustainable innovations are development	ped with partners

PROACTIVE ORIENTATION

